MY BIRTHDAY.

Affectionately inscribed to My Beloved Daughter, Sophia, in Kansas City.
Just fifty-eight to day. And can it be? How fleet of foot is Time!—how short the years! But yesterday you were a prattling child, And I in manhood's vigor young and strong. Now you have grown to womanhood, matured In years, learned in books and skilled in business. And battling with the world for sustenance, While I am tott'ring down life's western slope. And yet my father heart as longingly reaches out to you, my darling, and my affections are as tenderly entwined. About you now, as when a little child You trustingly nestled within my arms And sweetly slumbered all your cares away.

So quietly comes down the twilight dew.

Upon the fragrant flower beds of earth, That scarce are we aware of its descent Until we behold the earlier rays.

Of the morrow's sun reaching down to drink.

The pearl-drop from the wakening violets, eye.

And thus silently hoary Time keeps up His steady march, e'er countning off the years,

And we heed not the fleeting moments till

Our stooping form and wrinkled brow and locks.

Oh grey tell us that we are growing old.

You, the years slip by—one by one they go,

As noiselessly as the snow-flake's fall, but

Swiftly as the eagle's flight, and surely As the arrow's course, they bear us onward

To our common goal, from whence none return.

Teach us then, Oh! God, to "number our days,

That we may apply our hearts to wisdom."

And as we advance in years may we grow

In grace and in a knowledge of the Lord,

Help us to learn of Thee—Thy will to know—

In all we do Thy name to glorify.

So let us live, and work, and trust, and pray,

Till we shall meet Thee and each other in

That eternity where no sorrow comes,

And the duration of our blissful peace Shall be unmeasured by the flight of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

The following unique communication will be read with interest by the many friends of the good old couple hereabouts:

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

RAUGO, KANSAS, April 1.—As I have been a reader of your welcome paper for years, I thought that a few lines from myself would be appreciated by the many readers of the L. J., some of whom are relatives and acquaintances in Lincoln, Pulaski and Madison counties, even if the grammar is bad. On Monday, the 30th of March, was the 50th anniversary of our married life, and we had what is called the golden wedding. There were 40 of our children, grand-children and great-grand-children present and Brother S. L. Young and wife, from Pratt county, and Rock Bastin and wife, from the Nimmecaw, and several of the neighbors. The dinner was one of the best that the old lady has gotten up for the last 50 years. Those readers of this who in other days have eaten at her table, know what that means. In the 50 years past we have had born unto us 10 children and 45 grand-children and 13 great-grand-children, making 68 descendants. The old lady is 64 years old and if I live to see the 3d day of June next, will be 70 years old. The presents presented to the old lady were, a silver castor, a breastpin, a knit yarn cap, a vase and 2 fine linen towels. I was presented with 50 apple trees from a nurseryman and from other parties a fine set of gold-washed shirt and cuff buttons and a fine silk handkerchief. All seemed to enjoy themselves well.

There is considerably the largest acreage of wheat sown in Kingman county this year ever known and it looks better than I ever saw it at this season of the year. Respectfully, WILLIAM YOUNG.

CRAB ORCHARD.

New stock of wall paper at Chadwick, Bailey & Co.'s.

Splendid stock of clothing just received by Chadwick, Bailey & Co.

The Woman's Christian Aid Society wish all the members to be present next Thursday. Some important business to attend to.

Owing to sickness and extremely bad weather, the Crab Orchard Dramatic Society did not put their play on the stage, but the manager promises as soon he can be sure there will be good weather he will present it. There will be an afterpiece, which is very laughable.

Mr. J. B. Lawless, formerly one of our townsmen, but now of Lexington, is here to look after his property. Mrs. J. R. Bailey was visiting friends in Stanford last week. Messrs. E. W. Dillon and S. Vanderpool are quite sick. Mrs. Kate Egbert is convalescent. Willie White is down with grippe.

James Ramsey, Jr., while logging in the woods near town last Saturday, suffered a very bad accident. He was hitching his oxen to the log, when they started off before he was ready. The log fell on his leg, breaking both bones below the knee. He laid in the woods over an hour before the log was taken off of him. He is a very large man, weighing 250 pounds. Dr. Pettus set the broken limb.

The dance given by Col. D. G. Slaughter on April 1st was largely attended and enjoyed by all. It was not April fool by any means, as many thought 'would be, but the colonel in his genial way made it pleasant for all.

We note the first set, which was a combination of lancers and quadrille, composed of the following couples: Col. D. G. Slaughter, Miss May Parish; Henry Pettus, Miss Maud Pettus; Ward Moore, Miss Susie Miller; Charley Slaughter, Miss Annie Edmonston; Sam Tatem, Miss Jennie Payne; Sam Magee, Miss Nellie Smith; Will Beazley, Miss Alice Moore; Hundl y McClure, Miss Mamie DeBorde. The first figure was quadrille and the remaining figures were lancers. Fourth set was the little children, who danced with more grace and ease than many of the older ones. The dance was wound up at 12 o'clock with the Old Virginia reel. The music was furnished by Prof. Piper and Mrs. Slaughter, which was splendid.

Toads in Rocks.

Many well authenticated stories of the finding of live toads and frogs in solid rocks are on record, and that such things are possible was demonstrated here recently, when the workmen engaged in Varley & Everill's lime rock quarry, north of the city, broke open a large piece of rock which had been blasted out, and a frog hopped out of a pocket in the centre of the stone, says the Salt Lake Herald. Of course the occurrence created a tremendous sensation among the workmen and operations at the quarry were for the time suspended, and the movements of the frog were watched with great interest. The animal was somewhat smaller than the ordinary frog and was perfectly white. It even was unusually large and very brilliant, but the frog was apparently blind. Where the mouth should have been there was only a tue, and on the feet was a dark, horny substance. Mr. Everill at once took charge of the curiosity and put it in a tin can, but the frog died the next morning. He brought it down town and it was examined with interest by a large number of people, and it was afterward presented to the museum, where it will be preserved in alcohol.

As to feeding poultry, says a New Jersey breeder, I have come to the conclusion that there is too much corn and grain fed to produce eggs abundantly; that vegetable food is most requisite. I have found that potatoes alone when fed to a number of fowls for a certain length of time will produce more eggs than corn alone, and consequently that the potato is the best vegetable substitute for grain. I have also learned that barn-yard fowls will not long remain in a healthy state without vegetable food, and this with me is a strong conviction. I have reason to believe that most of the diseases prevalent among chickens and poultry come from feeding too much corn and grain, and the more they are confined in small enclosures the more need they have of vegetable food.

The SUGAR-SUBSIDIES.—This $8,000,000 that is to be paid the Louisiana planters and this half million dollars that is to be paid the Vermont sap patriots will be absolute gifts. The money will simply be taken from other people in the form of taxes upon food, clothing and necessities of life, and turned over to these fortunate gentlemen. Why should this be done? Why should the government pay one class of men for producing sugar from cane or maple sap out of the taxes wrung from the men who raise wheat and corn and tobacco? Is sugar-growing more commendable than wheat-growing? Is sugar a more important article of food than bread or meat?—Indiana Sentinel.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

The express line between here and Danville has been discontinued, but Mr. Clark Farris still runs his stage.

The Gaither Light Infantry turned out Saturday afternoon for target practice. Their new uniforms are daisies.

The negro, Charley Owens, who cut another negro, Sam McKee, so severely on "Battle Row" not long since, has been discharged on motion of the Commonwealth.

The Lancaster Burlesque Company have arranged to give their entertainment "Ancient Order of Hercules," at Nicholasville Saturday evening, the 18th inst.

We sincerely hope that our neighbors will give the boys a crowded house.

The Georgia Handlin Dramatic Co., arrived in Lancaster Friday morning and everything bade fair for a large audience, as the company came well recommended and their appearance attracted the attention of the people, but just as the crowd was gathering Mac Handlin was taken suddenly ill and is now at the Miller Hotel under medical treatment.

The balance of the troupe played at the Opera House Saturday evening to an appreciative audience. At this writing Miss Handlin is somewhat improved and since they will be compelled to remain here the balance of the week, it is thought she will be able to appear on the stage the latter part of the week. The people are anxious to see her and everything is being done for her comfort.

W. O. Sweeney has returned from Cincinnati and is dangerously ill with pneumonia. James Dunn and wife of Owensboro, are here on a short visit. Homer Price, now of Knoxville, has been spending a few days with Lancaster friends. Dr. W. S. Elkin, of Atlanta, is here on a visit to his mother. Our popular jester, S. D. Bathwell, has been confined to his room for several days with kidney trouble. Hon. J. H. Brown and family have returned from Mt. Vernon. Mr. John Duncan, who is assigned to duty as ganger at one of the Anderson county distilleries, is here on a short vacation. Judge M. H. Rice has gone to Tennessee on professional business. Capt. W. S. Miller was here a few days last week. Howard Rice is in Harrodsburg on business. Miss Mollie Burdett, of Parksville, is visiting Miss Carrie Woods.

Your scribe has just returned from a visit to the Blue Grass city of Kentucky. At Richmond he was royally entertained by his friend, Col. John Henderson, who on the 2d floor of the old Garnett House, is prepared to furnish a first-class meal at reasonable prices to any wayfarer, gentleman or lady, who may be passing there for that city. The colonel is proverbial for his good sense, genial manners and warm heartedness. Don't fail to give him a call if you pass that way.

Lexington is looking up grandly and bids fair to become one of the most populous cities of the South. Her business houses are first-class and the markets are stocked with the best quality of meats, provisions and everything that could be desired to satisfy the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. The journals are well conducted and full of enterprise and dash. The leader is undoubtedly the leader, although republican and published in a city thoroughly democratic. Horse talk is indulged in to a large extent and the merits of the thoroughbreds fully discussed; every one you meet knowing the time of every prominent horse in the State, and he might say in every State.

Being young in politics, your scribe concluded to take a look at the republies, to see the horses go round; and while being only an observer, he cannot say that he made any considerable headway in political wisdom, but was enough to satisfy him that "For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain,

The citizens of Lexington are making a strong fight for the possession of the State capital and if it should be removed from Frankfort, will doubtless accomplish their desire. Altogether, the trip of your scribe was pleasant and instructive. He got to smoke and chat with the political moguls and to learn much of the principal city of Central Kentucky.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to extend to those who assisted and proffered their assistance in our recent bereavement my heartfelt thanks and only hope I shall live to partly repay them. WILLIS G. BARNETT.

HUSTONVILLE.

The firm of Weatherford & Cook has been dissolved by the retirement of Mr. Cook. Buck will continue the drug business with Mae Cook's assistance behind the counter and Jimmy will develop a few of his very stylish and promising coats. Indications about Hustonville would lead an observer to the conclusion that aside from banking and mercantile business there is little profit in anything but horses and mules.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD KY APRIL 7, 189

W. P. WALTON.

AFTER a month's terrific battle with disease and the devil, we are by the help of God again able to do some work and to attempt in a manner to thank the dear friends of the newspaper fraternity and others all over Kentucky, Virginia and several other States, who have manifested so much interest in our behalf. Our younger brother, who has filled our place better than we could have done ourselves under favorable circumstances, has copied a few of the articles that gentle hearts inspired, but as we knew nothing of them until he did so and then not until days after, we are relieved of the charge of vanity that their reproduction might inspire. Thank you, dear brothers all, those whose notices now occupy valued space in our scrap-book and were not reproduced, as well as those that were. Fully if not more cherished indeed are the hundreds of letters now before us, and if, as Bro. McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, says, we have had more than our share of affliction, we still have cause for thankfulness and gratitude, which we would like each heart to know that we feel with unspeakable intensity. May the Giver of every good and perfect gift bless you all abundantly.

If Italy decides to wall up the U. S. she cannot commence operations for six months. According to the treaty between the countries, to which the Louisville Times calls attention, that time is to be allowed the merchants of the coast and in the ports of each other and the term of one year to those who dwell in the interior, to arrange their business and transport their effects wherever they please, and that all whose occupations are for the common subsistence and benefit of mankind shall be allowed to continue their employments without molestation from the belligerents of either side. This is a most humane provision and the country that breaks it deserves to be whipped. By the way, the spectacle of little Italy growling and snarling at this great country looks very much like a fox after a bull dog. The boot-shaped peninsula could be hidden in Texas so completely it would be hard to find.

A FRIEND has sent us a beautiful, blue card, containing a handsome picture of Auditor Norman and hearty endorsement of the gentleman by Editor W. T. Havens, of Mt. Sterling, who holds the position of deputy commissioner of insurance under him. Then in plaintive terms Capt. Havens calls on his friends to support his chief and in display type exclaims, "A vote for Norman is a vote for me." We do not gainsay a word the captain says of the auditor and we know the captain himself to be a clever, excellent gentleman, but we think the people will repudiate the combination which has been sucking the public teat so long and put their seal of censure on the way the army of clerks and assistants are trying to perpetuate the Hewitt dynasty. With a new candidate such as Hon. R. C. Warren, the party will not be thrown on the defensive. Let us have a new deal all around.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY was elected over Congressman Wilson to the vacancy on the national republican committee by a vote of 7 to 5. No man in Kentucky has done more for his party than Col. Bradley, and his friends, whose names are legion, are delighted that his services have been so handsomely recognized. The most popular republican in Kentucky deserved the honor without a struggle and would have gotten it without opposition if the masses had had a say. The committee chose Lexington as the place and May 22d as the day for holding the convention to nominate candidates for State offices.

The last issue of the Nelson Record announces the purchase of Mr. T. N. Morris' interest in it by Hon. Ben Johnson, late speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives. Mr. Johnson promises to keep the paper up to its high standard, which he is thoroughly capable of doing. Mr. Morris will take charge of the business department of Rev. H. C. Morrison's Kentucky Methodist, which will be removed to Louisville and be greatly improved. We are glad to know that Kentucky will not lose this excellent gentleman and newspaper man.

Is an interview Senator Blackburn shows that he has "toned down" considerably in his pronounced opposition to Cleveland since mingling with the people who love him for the enemies he has made. The Senator is personally for Senator Gorman, of Maryland, but he doesn't undertake to say now that Cleveland cannot be either nominated or elected. The political atmosphere at Washington is nearly always vitiated and the free ozone of the country helps even the most morbid cases produced by it.

WILL STERETTE'S Owensboro Mid-night Sun, after many obscurations and eclipses has ceased to shine and the hard-to-keep-down young man will go on the lecture platform and tell of "Sterette's Troubles." It is hoped the public will be enough interested in them to give him a helping hand.

The con. com. has decided to have printed and distributed 200,000 copies of the instrument it is framing and the Danville Advocate makes the suggestion that they be printed in supplement form and furnished the newspapers, which will willingly give it free circulation with their issues. The suggestion is a good one and the best and cheapest way of getting the thing before the people. So far as we are concerned, we will send it out without charge to the State and we believe that most of the other papers will. The cost will not be greater than the expense of folding and postage and surely the matter is of enough public interest and importance for the smallest paper to incur that not very great cost.

Owing to the illness of one or two of the colored jurors, the argument in the case of Charles E. Kinead for killing Congressman Tanlbee had to be cut short Saturday and a continuance had till to-day, and it was probably very late if not all before the jury was finally given the case. The prosecuting attorney made a very bitter argument against the defendant, but "Charles'" friends here are satisfied that he ought to be acquitted and that he will be.

Col. W. O. Bradley, member of the national republican committee, passed through to Louisville Sunday. The biggest-hearted republican in the State is not the chief of them all, as well as of the official patronage. Brer. George Denny and the others, who so shrewdly and ceaselessly mistreated him, world, like the clipped-winged turkey buzzards, have to roost exceedingly low in future, if the colonel was not the most forgiving of men.

MALONE, the man who tried to usurp the office of Col. Lewis, so as to help defeat Col. Bradley, at Lexington, but fled when the test came and disappeared, causing George Denny to exclaim in the anguish of his soul, "Where is Malone?" had gone to join McGinty at the bottom of the sea, where Denny himself subsequently fell with a dull thud.

The railroad in Palestine is progressing finely and soon the strange cry will be heard, "All aboard for Jerusalem." The "cannon ball" and "lightning express" will hardly be known on the line from Jaffa to the former city, however, as the average grade is 47 feet to the mile.

DR. JOHN D. WOODS was nominated for one of the representatives of Warren by primary Saturday. The doctor is as popular as he is brainy and this further demonstration of the former is very gratifying to his friends.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal said yesterday that it is possible that the convention may adjourn this week. Yes, all things are possible, but this one is not probable by a jing-full.

The Italian war has died a-borning. The "government of the king" has recognized that Fava has made a monkey of himself and will send him along with some of his organ-grinding subjects.

GEN. GREELEY was in Louisville Saturday. He left the weather in charge of a subordinate and that may account for the worst spell of winter since Christmas.

They advanced upon the works and, according to the general report, fired upon the guards, who, after vainly ordering them back, opened a fusillade on them with Winchester rifles. They All Failed.

—The following note from Mr. W. A. Thompson, of Cincinnati, is very interesting:

"My wife," says he, "has been treated for her head, stomach and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two of whom, one Dr. C. W. Snow & Son, and another Dr. W. H. McCormick, of New York, have failed. The third, Dr. H. A. Penney, of New York, has succeeded. She has been treated for her head, stomach, kidneys, lungs, heart, liver, intestines, ovaries, uterus, ovaries, pelvis, etc. C. W. Snow & Son, of Syracuse, N. Y., Dr. H. A. ## SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., APRIL 7, 1891

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

Your account is due and ready. Call and settle and oblige A. B. Penny.

PERSONAL POINTS.

COL. W. S. MILLER, of Lake Otter, Tenn., was in town Saturday.

JUDGE W. H. PITTER, of Somerset, was here attending court last week.

Mrs. NOVA DICKINSON, of Gariard, is the guest of Miss Montie Harris.

MISS ANNIE ALCOM left last week to visit her friend, Miss Ella McElwain, of Franklin.

MR. V. B. WATSON, who has lost his wife and a grand-child in the last week, is very ill.

Messrs. WM. DENNY and M. F. Arbrick, of Richmond, have been guests at Mr. A. K. Denby's.

Mrs. JAMES DILLON and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Lancaster, have been the guests of friends here.

MISSES NETTIE AND GEORGE WRAY have been spending a few days with Miss Bessie Richards at Junction City.

CAPT. W. H. BOYCE, of Lexington, a prominent horseman, was over last week looking at some of Lincoln's fine trotters.

JOHN BRIGHT, JR., came down Friday to attend the entertainment given by the young ladies of the College on that evening.

DR. J. D. CLARKY, the Christian community candidate for governor, stayed here over night on his way to Richmond, Friday. He didn't stay here long enough to give many of our citizens a peep at him.

W. W. PENN, traveling passenger agent of the L. & N. railroad, arrived last evening and will make Middlesboro his headquarters. He has taken quarters at the Ashbury Hotel.—Middlesboro News.

MISS LITTLE HELM, of Stanford, Ky., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Horace Brown, left yesterday for her home—New Albany, Ind. Louisville Commercial.

MR. T. R. WALTON, of Atlanta, who responded so quickly and so lovingly when he heard of his brother's illness, will return to that city, with which he is very much pleased, in a day or two.

THE Pineville Messenger names our former townsman, Harvey Helm, Esq., as one of the 11 candidates for city judge there. Harvey is tall enough and smart enough to gather the pennion if he tries.

MRS. MAGGIE W. CARPENTER took the train here yesterday for Kansas City, where she will make her future home. Her many friends in the West End, as well as those in this portion of the country, greatly regret her departure.

MR. L. C. PHILLIPS, who has spent the last two months here working the insurance business for the Michigan Mutual, left with his wife Sunday for Lebanon to remain a month or so, after which he will return and resume his business here.

THE Carlisle Mercury says that Hon. R. C. Warren spoke there last week and made a most favorable impression, besides many friends. The paper thinks he will "go to the convention with a strong following, of which he is every way worthy."

MR. ROBERT HARDING, of Danville, has been here for more than a week attending the trial with Mrs. Harding merely to be present in the court room with Judge Kincaid and the members of the family who are here; but counsel for the defense soon found that Mr. Harding would be of valuable assistance and they practically brought him into the case, owing to his clear-headedness and sound legal ability.—Washington Dispatch to Louisville Times.

CITY AND VICINITY.

TAKE your eggs to Joe S. Jones and get 12 cents per dozen.

NORTHERN white oats and timothy just received. B. K. & W. H. Wearen.

The most elegant line of ladies' and misses' Oxford ties ever in this city received yesterday. Severance & Son.

WANTED.—To buy a pair of second-hand grist mill rocks. Apply to Peter Haase or Charles Eustis, Ottenheim.

BIRTH CARDS announcing the advent of a son to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Birmingham, have been received here. Mrs. Lamb was Miss Grace Warner.

THE Pineville Messenger says that real estate is looking decidedly up at Mt. Vincent. Last week $1,500 worth of lots changed hands and the prospect is bright. This will be good news to the "McGinnies" men here.

WHILE going to see her sister in Casey county, Mrs. T. J. Godfrey fell off the horse she was riding and severely bruised her hip. She had gone in a buggy as far as Middleburg, but there had to change her mode of travel on account of the fearful mud roads.

FRESH lot of Zeigler Bros.' shoes at S. H. Shanks.

SAWINGSHINGLES and fencing lumber for sale by J. B. Foster.

FLOWER crocks of every description at A. A. Warren's Model Grocery.

WANTED, 100,000 pounds wool. Highest cash market price. A. T. Nunnelley.

LOT OF SWEETNESS.—Three trains, carrying 50 car loads of sugar, passed thru' Stanford to Louisville, one day last week.

AS many as 20 visitors a day on several days is enough to convince the editor that he has a few friends at least in the home of his adoption.

FOR RENT.—A couple of houses in Rowland, with four rooms each, property of M. Peyton. Good yards and plenty of water and conveniently located. W. A. Triddle.

THE State Board of Equalization increased Lincoln's taxes 2 per cent. on land and 5 on lots. Pulaski gets 5 increase on land, while Rockcastle is reduced 4 on the same.

KILLED BY THE CARS.—A 17-year-old son of Mr. Samuel Upthegrove, who lives at South Fork, in this county, was run over and killed by a freight train Sunday. The young man had attempted to board the train while in motion, but lost his hold and fell under the wheels. He was cut entirely in two.

THE sheriff of Harlan and several of his deputies brought John Howard back to the jail here Saturday to await the Whitley circuit court, to where he succeeded in getting a change of venue. Sidney Lewis, who killed his father, Judge Lewis, in Harlan, also secured a change of venue to Whitley, and was taken to Williamsburg for safe keeping until the county judge of Harlan not desiring to have too many of the criminals from that county in the same jail. In speaking of the Lewis case, Deputy Bailey informed a reporter for this paper that Mrs. Lewis and a negro named William Cornet had been indicted on the charge of taking part in the killing of Judge Lewis and that the public believed them both guilty. Mrs. Lewis was released under $5,000 bond and the negro under one of $6,000. Mr. Bailey also stated that it was the impression that Lewis would plead insanity, but that the county could and would furnish abundance of proof of his sanity. George Noe, who was tried at the present term of the Harlan court for breaking into Mr. Bailey's store, was given one year in the pen, and was in charge of the sheriff, who, after staying over night with him here, took him to Frankfort.

HEART THANKS.—In response to a telegram to come over and assist in the Woody Bros. Concert, Misses Libbie Pegan and Nodie Andrews, of Millersburg College, accompanied by Miss Mary Myers, of the same institution, arrived Saturday to the delight of every one, who had ever heard them sing. Miss Pegan is the teacher of music, while Miss Andrews is an apt pupil, who has graduated in instrumental and is fast becoming an adept in vocal. Here is a rich contralto, while Miss Pegan's voice is the sweetest soprano imaginable. Both are as lovely of form and feature as they are musically gifted and by their accommodating spirit in assisting at every entertainment, both public and in the home circle, they added hundreds to their already large circle of admirers. Being very dear friends of the editor, they called with Miss Myers and Mr. S. S. Myers twice in his sick room and treated him both times to their sweetest songs, which will ring in his ears till he hears them repeated in Heaven, where all good editors expect and hope to go, and will fill his heart with thankfulness till death shall still it. God bless them both and make them to know how truly grateful to them the writer is and how sincerely he appreciates so strong an evidence of their esteem.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The inclemency of the weather has kept the usual crowd of spectators from circuit court and were it not for the ringing of the Court-House bell, even the town people would not know that it is in session. The case of Higginbotham against the L. & N. for $10,000 resulted Friday in a verdict for the plaintiff for only $1,000. Mr. Higginbotham was badly hurt in the yard at Rowland and as it was proven that it was the fault of the railroad company, it is generally conceded that he should have had at least half of what he sued for.

B. G. and Eph Pennington vs. the L. & N. railroad for the killing of a couple of horses got $300. They sued for $800.

The Cincinnati Southern railroad vs. the Cincinnati and Green River railroad, which has been on the docket for some three years, was settled Saturday morning in favor of the former. The C. S. sued for a violation of their contract with the C. & G. R. in regard to freight charges and received $15,000.

G. W. Skyler, who sued the L. & N. Co. for $750, damages sustained to his wagon and horses in a runaway caused by a passing train, compromised with the company for $200. The monument case of G. G. Wine against J. S. Owsley, Sr., was begun yesterday and will not likely be completed before noon to-day.

DELIGHTFUL ROOM for rent. Mrs. P. H. Nunnelley.

HEAD-LIGHT fire proof oil to be found at B. K. & W. H. Wearen's.

A. T. NUNNELLEY has moved his shoe and harness shop to his livery stable on Depot street.

WALLACE & CO.'s Circus, which exhibited in Danville on the 22d, has honored this place with a few of their bills.

COME ON! COME ON! I will make fine cabinet photographs at $2 per dozen until the 15th of April. Take advantage of the extremely low rates. A. J. Earp, Stanford.

MARSHAL FLENEY, of Richmond, came down Saturday and took back with him Louis Gibson, who is charged with stabbing another negro at that place. From what we can learn the case is a very bad one and Gibson will likely spend a lengthy period in the pen.

THE signal service says there were but 5 cloudless days in March and we are witness that so far April has furnished none. It has snowed half a dozen times since the 1st and yesterday morning an inch of it covered the ground, while the wind was very disagreeable. On the whole the snap was about the worst of the winter and it is thought that fruit blossoms are materially injured.

AT the time of our going to press last night the prospects were that a good crowd would witness the entertainment at Walton's Opera House given by the Stanford Musical Association. The programme was a lengthy one and as it embraced solos, duets, etc., by such singers as Misses Pegan and Andrews, the Woodys and our best home talent, a delightful performance was assured. The cause was a most worthy one and the association deserved a crowded house.

SHOOT THE TRAMP.—Those who give food or money to the numerous tramps that this section is badly infested with, do a charitable act about one time in a hundred. The average man who roves over the country depending on the charity of the public is too low and mean to deserve help and in the long run it is by far better to turn a cold shoulder to the rascals as a whole. A tramp who claimed to be a printer, asked and received alms of this office the other day and reciprocated by walking off with an overcoat belonging to one of the force. One of the hotels here allowed another scamp of the same character to stay overnight and with the inappropriate rascal left with one more suit of clothes than he came with. These incidents happen almost daily and the sympathetic Stanfords will, we hope, soon realize that the so-called beggar is, as a general thing a wolf in sheep's clothing and is more deserving of a coat of tar and feathers than aid of any kind.

NOTWITHSTANDING the inclemency of the weather, a large crowd greeted the performance given by the Stanford Female College Friday evening. The entertainment was a musical and calisthenic treat, the equal of which has not been seen for years here. Some 50 beautiful girls, just now at the most interesting ages, took part and he who did not enjoy the evening might well be set down as a chronic grumbler of the worst type. The performance opened with a piano duet by Misses McAnally and Dishman, which was very good indeed; little Miss Janie Wearen then recited with much credit to herself, and Misses Hurst and Gann elicited much praise by a well-executed rendition of "Grand Galop de Concert." The fan drill, in which some 40 little girls took part, was much enjoyed and was evincing of the fact that great care and time had been taken in preparing for it. Another duet by Misses Gann and McAnally was enjoyed, after which came a recitation by Miss Lizzie Menefee, which was well received by the audience. "Sonsone Galop" by the Misses Menefee and a vocal solo by Miss Jennie Dickinson were vociferously applauded as was the recitation of Miss Mattie Rochester. "I Would That My Love" by a class of 30 young ladies, was well sung; piano duet by Misses Emma Owsley and Susie Newland was splendidly performed and the recitation "A Little Girl's View of Hotel Life" by Miss Josephine Reid showed the little lady to be a genius indeed in that line. The scarf drill was a "thing of beauty" and the fancy costumes of the participants added much to the beauty of it. Misses Patti Alcorn and Annie Pence favored the audience with a well-executed duet and afterward Misses Annie Hurst and Annie Straub sang a duet, which was much enjoyed. Miss Clara Lackey recited "Archie Dean" and Miss Laura McAnally "The Eagle Rock" very creditably indeed and were the recipients of loud and prolonged applause. The very pleasing entertainment closed with a military drill in which 30 young ladies participated. They were all dressed in national colors and each carried a U. S. flag. "Capt." Miss Annie Green led them through a number of beautiful movements and proved to the audience her thorough military knowledge as well as the splendid command she had over her subordinates. The musical portion of the performance was under the charge of Miss Howard, the accomplished music teacher of the College and she deserves a liberal share of credit for the enjoyment of the entertainment. Miss Tipton had charge of the calisthenics and is to be congratulated on the success of her pupils.

THE addition to our store room is now complete and we invite you to inspect our large line of carpets, rugs and matting now open. Severance & Son.

ARM MASHED OFF.—Mack Bryant, a freight brakeman, while coupling cars at Corbin, had his right arm mashed into a jelly. He had only been braking at few weeks.

A WASHING MACHINE man entertained a large crowd on the street Friday and Saturday night, despite the disagreeable weather and the snow, which was falling.

THIEVES entered the coal-house of B. K. & W. H. Wearen Sunday night and took therefrom some 20 bushels of coal. Entrance was effected by breaking the lock. Several nights previous Mr. B. K.'s hen-house was relieved of a dozen chickens.

It was reported here yesterday that Rev. Allen Butt, of the McKinney section, had lost his mind. The old man is about 75 years of age, but has always enjoyed excellent health and is noted for his long sermons at his church in Casey county.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel says that Messrs. Wm. Mitchell and W. H. Strossman, of that city, have purchased an interest in the mining firm of Mr. Wm. Welsh and Mrs. E. M. Eaton, at Pine Hill, and that hereafter the company will be known as the Mitchell Mining Company.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Mr. George Anderson and Miss Mary Farnsworth were married at Harrodsburg.

—The marriage of George T. Bonta, a Danville merchant, to Miss Ella Earle, which occurred at Huntsville, Tenn., last September, has just been made public. The reason of the secrecy is not given.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Bardstown Baptists are preparing to build a splendid church in the place of the one recently burned and have issued an address calling for contributions.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison, of Lexington, is holding the greatest revival in Hopkinsville's history. The crowds cannot get in the church, which is packed at every service. Already 100 conversions have resulted.

—The union song service at the Presbyterian church Sunday night was well attended and proved a very interesting one. The Messrs. Woody Bros. and Miss Woody together with the choir of some 50 voices, sang several beautiful anthems and Miss Pegan very sweetly sang "Some Sweet Day." Revs. Helm and Godley each made interesting and timely speeches, which were well received and enjoyed.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—Little Viola Armstrong, the two-year-old granddaughter of Mr. V. B. Watson, died Friday night.

—Mrs. Faulkner, wife of Senator Faulkner, from West Virginia, and mother of Miss Jane Faulkner, who visited here last summer, died in Washington last week from the effects of influenza.
